

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, January 30, 1901

Volta Bureau, January 30, 1901. Dear Mabel: —

I have been THINKING ALOUD concerning the census of the Blind and the Deaf in the presence of Miss Safford. So I am able to send you a typewritten copy of the result so that you may be able to THINK WITH ME.

Your loving husband Alec. This is Wednesday My first Wednesday evening at Bert's rooms. 29 people invited five there at 7 p.m. Meeting at 8.30. I send you a specimen of card with invitation on it. Agb

Belongs in Drawer No. 16 DR. BELL'S ROOM. Hubbard Memorial Hall, 1156 — 16th Street, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Alexnader Graham Bell, 6 Rue de Longchamps, Paris, France.

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL TO MABEL (Hubbard) BELL Volta Bureau. January 30, 1901. Dear Mabel:

I have been THINKING ALOUD concerning the Census of the Blind and the Deaf in the presence of Miss Safford. So I am able to send you a typewritten copy of the result so that you may be able to THINK WITH ME.

Your loving husband, Alec. P. S. This is Wednesday. My first Wednesday evening at Bert's rooms. 29 people invited. Dine there at 7 P.M. Meeting at 8:30. I send you a specimen of card with invitation on it. AGB. Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, 6 Rue de Longchamps, Paris, France.